'Ello Love!

Having just returned from the U.K. to kick off "The Art of Bart," Nancy was greeted by nearly 2,000 adoring fans at The Animation Art Gallery in London. Respected owners, Russell Singler and Graham Parker were overjoyed with the response. The exhibition presented over 100 original cels used in the production of The Simpsons and due to the overwhelming response, the entire stock was SOLD OUT! After personally sitting with and greeting every single person that waited up to 3 hours in line, Nancy commented,

 (Apparently she had lost her voice.)

FROM NANCY:

What a year... tons of production! Happy House is in full swing with all kinds of projects from animation to live-action films. The company's slate broadens weekly, ranging from dramatic comedies to mystery thrillers.

Having worked in the animation business for nearly 20 years, it truly gives me satisfaction to be moving into animation development. We have contemporary concepts with "bite" to entertainment for kids focusing on education. Soon, we will be producing our own Prime-Time animated series. Very exciting stuff!

The Simpson's has kicked off it's 11th season and I am also co-starring in a new animated show God, the Devil and Bob. You can also catch me on Pinky and the Brain and Elmyra and the upcoming Mike, Lu and Og. Wow, it has been an extremely productive year and this is only June!

For the nonce,

Nancy

"GATHERING THE JONESES" GATHER NO MOSS

Many of you have heard of our efforts to bring "Gathering the Jonese" to the screen. We are pleased to announce the attachment of indie award winning producer, Rana Joy Glickman. Rana brings to the project a wealth of experience and knowledge. We are also pleased to report that we have "gathered" a director, Jim Dodson. Jim is a veteran director of independent film and has worked extensively with Rana in the past. Now we have the perfect team to bring the Jonese to life on the silver screen!

GOD, THE DEVIL AND BOB... AND NANCY!

Nancy is now in production on her most recent animated series God, the Devil and Bob. In this new half-hour Prime-Time Carsey-Werner production, Nancy is the voice of 13-year-old Megan Alman. In this modern day Job story, God and the Devil wager on Bob Alman, an average guy.

Working with Nancy are James Garner as God, Alan Cumming as the Devil, French Stewart as Bob, Laurie Metcalf as Donna Alman and Kath Soucie as Megan's brother, Andy. The show will air on NBC. Stay tuned!

HAPPY HOUSE ANIMATION

Happy House is launching its animation division. Nancy's position as an icon of Voice-Over provides a strong entre into producing in the world of the "unreal." "We're looking at Prime-Time as well as stuff for kids," says Nancy. The kid stuff will have an educational component but the Prime-Time will be pure entertainment. "You can do a lot with the medium that is impossible to do with live-action. Many of the friends I've made in animation are very excited to see me get into producing."

FYI...

About 10 years ago, mutual friend, Dave Tourje, introduced Nancy to Murphy. Two days later, Nancy and Murphy were living together and two months later, they were married. As a wedding gift, Dave presented his friends with a piece of a artwork entitled, "The Happy House." It was this same artwork that has become the official Happy House logo. Thanks, Dave!
